FORTIETH YEAR NO. 33

OFFICIAL VOTE FOR HANCOCK

Mike Conner Leads With Hugh White Close Second
—County Candidates to Run.

Although The Sea Coast Echo gave the full official vote in Hancock county on Tuesday of last week, in tabular form, it is interesting never the less to again review these figures in possibly more "reading" form. Mike Conner led the ticket with votes of 1259 against 1047 for White. Paul Johnson ranked third with 714 and Mitchell, Bilbo's candidate, ran fourth, receiving 287 votes.

For Lt. Governor.

Richard Adams, always a favorite of Hancock county, pulled a three to one vote over Dennis Murphy. Adams received 2336 to 743 for Murphy. R. C. Russell, uncle of our own Chancellor Russell, outran the entire field in the race for attorney-general, receiving a vote of 1765 as against 342 for Greek Rice, a x highest man.

County Results.

W. J. Fleming was elected representative from Hancock county over Robert L. Genn, incumbent. Lumpkin led in Hancock county for state senator for Hancock and Pearl River counties over Stockstill. The run-off in the sheriff's race will be between T. Ed Keller, former county superintendent of education, and Claude Monti, local business man. A. G. (Red) Fave was renominated chancery and circuit clerk by a two to one vote over his opponent, lead the county ticket.

RESIDENT OF BAY ST. LOUIS BACK HOME ON A VISIT FROM TEX.

H. R. Gianelloni, Working
At Port Arthur, Texas,
Here on Short Visit.

H. R. Gianelloni, resident of Bay Louis, who has been away at Port Arthur, Texas, holding a position for some time, was back home Monday and Tuesday of this week and said even though it was only for a short while he was glad to be home again.

Mr. Gianelloni by reason of his long years of residence here, is well known and his visit was an occasion for much cordial greeting. He made the trip to and from by auto and found it a most pleasant journey. "We fell the depression possibly more than anywhere else," said Mr. Gianelloni when asked how was Port Arthur hit. "Here in the Texas city of so much prosperity, where everyone has been used to big things—big salaries and liberal buying—we have come to that point where now we feel it the most. We must stink like never before. This we do not know how to do, hence it hurts all the more."

Persons who owned beautiful homes and led lives calling for much excitement, cannot pay for such maintenance, hence many have lost much, even to their homes. A salaried man in Port Arthur was not considered a wage-earner; he was a man of money because he made it big and he felt his position was lasting.

"Otherwise," continued the speaker, "the Texas country and Port Arthur are doing as well as anywhere else and we have many natural outputs that serve us as a solid rock. I am satisfied we will come back as strong as ever."

"But, in conclusion, 'no country like Bay St. Louis and the Mississippi Gulf Coast.' It is the place to live, and for that reason I make it my permanent domicile."

IN THE RUN-OFF AUG. 25

County and Beat Candidates
Who Will Figure In The Second Primary Tuesday
Week.

There are a number of contests to be settled in Hancock County on August 25th, and interest in same continues at fever heat. Some of the aspirants for political favor came very near to "making the grade," but alas they failed and they are now busy "getting up steam to pull over the hill."

According to the official tabulation of ballots cast in the primary of August 14, the following candidates, considered alphabetically, will have their names on the ticket next Tuesday week.

For Superintendent of Education—D. J. Everett and Albert S. McQueen. For Sheriff and Tax-Collector—T. Ed Keller and Claude Monti.

For Tax Assessor—George L. Cuevas and J. C. Jones. For Supervisor, District 2—W. E. McQueen and J. B. Wheat.

For Supervisor, District 3—Dr. F. Z. Goss and Calvin Shaw. For Constable, District 4—Forest Depree and Michel Necaise.

For Supervisor, District 5—Emilio Cue and W. Driver. For Constable, District 5—I. T. W. Mitchell and Mark Oliver.

There is an old saying to the effect that there are three things that the good Lord does not know, to-wit: Who a woman will marry; the verdict of a petit jury, and how much a yokel will pay for a primary election.

So don't be surprised when the returns come in after the polls close on August 25th.

DEATH OF MRS. NINA LADNER

Well-Known and Beloved
Young Woman Passes
Away While Visiting
Her Children North

Mrs. Nina Gex Ladner, wife of Sylvester Ladner, and daughter of the late L. M. Gex and his wife, Mrs. M. V. Gex, passed away at an early hour Tuesday morning, while visiting at the home of one of her children in Englewood, N. J., where she had gone to visit possibly not longer than two weeks ago.

Mrs. Ladner was accompanied on her trip by her daughter, Miss Nina Ladner, of New Orleans, traveling by train. Their itinerary was to carry them to various points East. To New York, to Englewood, New Jersey this side of the big city; then over on the other side of Ansonia, Conn.

Mrs. Ladner had been looking forward to this summer trip to visit one married daughter and two young sons, with more than ordinary anticipation. It was reported she was not well before she left, but nothing was to daunt mother's love of seeing her own, so determined she allowed her original plans to carry.

The deceased is survived by her husband, Sylvester Ladner, resident representative of the L. & N. at Mississippi City; and three daughters and two sons. These are:

Nina Ladner, of New Orleans; Lucille Ladner, wife of Guy H. Brodt, of Englewood, N. J.; Loyd Ladner of Ansonia, Conn.; Ernest Ladner of New York; and a daughter, Edith Ladner, of Bay St. Louis, holding a local secretarial position and youngest of the family.

Nina Gex Ladner was a native of New Orleans, aged 55 years. Came to Bay St. Louis when quite young with her parents and attended the Academy school. She was a woman of executive ability and possessor of a fine business mind. She had been engaged in the real estate business and was always active without intruding herself. In fact, she was of an engaging personality, and the message of her death early Tuesday morning sent a pall over the city, for both the Gex and Ladner families are well and prominently known.

The remains were shipped direct through Bay St. Louis to New Orleans where the funeral ceremony will be held from the L. & N. train to Metairie cemetery this Friday morning, August 14.

In addition to her immediate family, Mrs. Ladner is survived by her sons, Mrs. M. V. Gex, two brothers, Walter J. and Emil J., attorneys of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Robert L. Genn and Miss Victoria Gex. Also by a number of nephews and nieces, including Walter J., and Lucien M. Gex, also local attorneys; Mrs. Vivian Ducatel Prague, Mrs. Wena Gex Phillips and Miss Ethel and Stella Gex.

To these and others the deepest sympathy is extended.

KILN HI SCHOOL OPENS

Bro. Peter, President of St.
Stanislaus College, Delivers
Opening Address.

Monday morning, August 19, at 9 o'clock, witnessed the opening exercises of Kiln Vocational School, this county.

Bro. Peter, president of St. Stanislaus College, of this city, was the invited and principal speaker of the occasion and addressed a large number of patrons and others who had assembled for the purpose, including three hundred children enrolled. His subject was "Co-operation," and as usual, was a practical and beneficial talk. The faculty expressed its opinion that Bro. Peter's inspiring address would live throughout the session and this lasting effect would certainly serve to good purpose.

It was noted that the enrollment has increased in every department over last year, with a corps of twelve teachers, Prof. E. E. Lumpkin, superintendent and J. A. Farmer, principal.

Kiln Consolidated offers 18 units of high school work and department of music, commerce, agriculture and home economics.

Exercises closed with a splendid talk by Supt. E. E. Lumpkin, who begins his second year as the head of the school. He is expecting a very successful year's work throughout the entire school.

FIRST GUN FOR CITY RACE

Joseph O. Mauffray Issues
Statement To Voters Announcing Candidacy for Mayor.

With the raising of the first primary election for State and County, the campaign for city politics is opened with a signed statement from Joseph O. Mauffray, who has announced his candidacy for the mayoralty.

Mr. Mauffray, successful business man, who has worked himself up from the bottom of the ladder to its top, most wishes to give the people of Bay St. Louis the value of his experience since running a city is just the same as assuming the head of a big business. It is nothing else but running a big business.

For the information of the younger voters, he says: "At the time that I cast my lot in this community, I knew personally three of its citizens, Judge Brath being one. My purpose in coming here

THE people of Mississippi have it in their power to choose on August 25th, the man who will be their governor for the next four years.

The Echo unhesitatingly declares Hugh L. White as its choice for the exalted office, and would urge upon the voters to rally to the standard of the Marion county candidate. The tremendous endorsement given him in the first primary bears testimony of the confidence that the electorate of Mississippi has in his honesty and ability to guide the Ship of State back to its ancient moorings.

Twelve months ago Hugh White was scarcely known beyond the borders of Marion county, but during the campaign he carried to the people a message, which convinced them of his rugged integrity and eminent fitness to assume the office once honored and graced by John M. Stone, Robert Lowry, A. H. Longino and Henry Whitfield, and the vote he received is proof that he will win the nomination on August 25th by the largest majority any gubernatorial aspirant has received in years.

He has a lead of nearly 20,000 votes over the other candidate, and the supporters of Johnson and Mitchell are today flocking to the White standard by thousands.

It is a trait in most people to wish to get into the "band wagon" of a leading candidate, but never before has that desire been so strikingly illustrated than in this particular instance, which doubly assures Hugh White's nomination.

With such a man in the State House—one who is honest, a true patriot and a Christian gentleman—one who cannot be influenced by tricky politicians and place-hunters, the redemption of Mississippi is assured. For these reasons The Echo is for Hugh White and feels confident that he will be Mississippi's next governor.

first of January. He is a stalwart young man, native of this county, and well qualified to serve.

Supervisor-elect Necaise has served his county in official capacity over a period of about eight years, and in each instance has manifested his ability to serve and willingness to do.

A young man, progressive and ever alert he will serve his constituency fully and with capacity.

He has served Hancock county as deputy Sheriff for that section for a term of eight years—at present deputy sheriff and constable for Beat 4.

For a number of years he served the Hines Lumber Company, and his record with that commercial firm has been one of high percentage. He left to assume official duties highly recommended by his employers.

He was elected in the first primary last week over two opponents.

He has requested the Echo to thank one and all of the Beat who voted or in any other way helped him, and for those who might not have voted for him he holds the same cordial feelings. He wants to serve one and all, and asks that the people make their wishes known, and, when possible, he will be glad to be of service to them.

Local Lumberman Attends Convention at Jackson, Mississippi

A directors meeting of the Mississippi Retail Lumber and Building Supply Association was held in Jackson at the Robert E. Lee Hotel Saturday. This was the final meeting of the Board of Directors for this year. J. A. Minnich, former secretary of the Tennessee Association, was present and assumed his new responsibilities as secretary of the Mississippi Association.

After the meeting was adjourned the future of the new association was assured by all present to be most successful. The first annual convention was voted to be held in Jackson during the last week of February 1932.

The Gulf Coast district was represented by Norton Haas, Bay-Waveland, as director, and Walter Pratt, Gulfport lumberman.

was to take a job at the fabulous salary of ten dollars per month and whether or not I made good for the public to judge.

"In the past thirty-eight years there was scarcely a movement of any merit put forth but what Mauffray was found in the front line of battle doing his bit for the cause. Selfishness and personal affairs were cast aside at all times of need, be it civic relief or welfare, in normal times as well as in time of war, disasters, etc."

"Some twenty-odd years ago, under the old aldermanic system, I was drafted as an alderman, from the second ward, at a period when most of my time was spent in a wheel-chair and on crutches, and for that reason, I resigned at the end of the first year."

"About 1907, I was elected vice-president of the Merchants Bank and served in that capacity until 1915, when I was elected president of the bank and served in that capacity nearly ten years; was then elected chairman of the board of directors of same, from which position I resigned. In addition to the foregoing, I served (without pay) as a member of the Bond Commission for a period of about six years from 1912 to 1918."

The second half of Mr. Mauffray's letter to the voters, is devoted to some of the things he would favor, viz:

A reduction in the Mayor's salary in keeping with that of the other Coast cities and elsewhere; favor of paying the laborer a liberal wage for efficient service; favors continued improvements, particularly the paving of the streets.

"It is evident," he says, "that the matter of drainage should be given attention, in at least two or three important areas of the city. At the same time, however, such improvements should be only to the extent as not to interfere with a decided reduction in taxes."

"In my opinion, one of the best means of advertising a small community such as ours, is to make it pleasant for those who visit us; and one of the ways to reach out for many who would otherwise not come to our midst is by means of conventions, and, if elected, I shall lend my personal efforts to induce such organizations as our limited accommodations can take care of to come here."

"I favor, also, strict economy in the handling of public funds. If elected, I shall not be concerned about building political fences for the future but will ever endeavor to work for the well being of our fair little city so dear to our hearts."

LOCAL MAN HAS TEN TREES AND HAR- VESTS TEN BUSHEL

Of Apples On Farm In Felicity Street—Further Demonstrating Apples Grow Well
Here

The article "Growing Apples in Bay St. Louis," which appeared in The Echo last week, attracted considerable attention, read, as it was, with much interest.

But since its publication several persons have called attention to the fact, they state, apple growing in this section is not entirely new nor is it unknown. Sam Benigno, whose farm in Felicita street, is one of the finest places on the coast. Possibly not the largest, but among the better kept, showing intelligent farming and successful application of both brain and brawn. Mr. Benigno sends The Echo sample of large, delicious eating apples from a group of ten trees, bearing a harvest of ten bushels. These apples will compare with almost any apple as to size and taste shipped in here and offered for sale.

It is established apples may be grown in Bay St. Louis and vicinity with equal success as anywhere else, and the point of this article is to encourage more apple tree planting hereabouts. The apple tree, same as the pear, needs comparatively little attention, save for proper pruning and spraying when the occasion may demand it.

Acemb was alone in his car, working this territory as a salesman for his firm. Williams was accompanied by two young ladies, it was said.

"Williams was driving at a terrific speed," Acemb said, "and it was evident he was not looking in the direction from which my car was coming at the usual speed which I use a day after day in my travels."

Highway Attorney Ill of Operation

Mr. O'Hara became ill after a mastoid infection four weeks ago. Two physicians, besides his father, were at his bedside. Mr. O'Hara spent his boyhood days in Bay St. Louis and is well known in the Cedar Point area. The Echo hopes for his speedy recovery.

CHURCH FEAST SATURDAY

Feast of the Assumption of
The Blessed Virgin To Be Celebrated Saturday

On Saturday, August 15, the Catholic Church will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin. It is a holy day of obligation, and mass will be offered just as on Sunday, that is, at 8, 7, 6, 5, 4 and 10 o'clock. Today Friday—the vigil of the feast—is a day of fast and abstinence.

The Assumption is the patronal feast of the parish of Our Lady of the Gulf. In the Diary kept by Father Buteux we read the following:

August 15th, 1817—Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin—First Mass celebrated at the Court House, at which about 40 or 50 persons assisted.

Previous to this Bay St. Louis had no resident pastor, so Missionary Priests attended the needs of the people. Father Buteux, the first pastor celebrated his First Mass as pastor on the feast of the Assumption. This feast is the one chosen as the national feast and in preparation for it a Novena is now going on, the devotion is held each evening at 8 P. M.

This beautiful Church of Our Lady of the Gulf has a tremendous debt, and this obligation must be met on September 1st, the sum of $2000 must be raised by that date. The pastor is calling upon all interested in the welfare of this church to aid in the meeting of this obligation.

If I felt that the people will respond generously. The church fair is being held over and above the proceeds of the fair $2000 will be needed. Since 1818, when the Bay was a tiny village, the people have been generous in their support of the church, and now when they have a beautiful church a monument to their devotion and self-sacrifice we know they will come forth and save the church from this very embarrassing situation.

IS SUCH ACTION LAWFUL?

GOVERNOR W. H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray of Oklahoma took drastic measures to raise the price of crude oil when he sent troops into the oil fields and shut down the wells in order to cut production. The top price of crude oil has been 50 cents per barrel and the governor believes that the minimum price should be not less than $1.00. He may be right in the steps he has taken to help the oil interests. However, it looks to us like the same method of limiting production of wheat, corn, cotton, as well as the output of factories of all kinds, could be controlled by executive order in the effort to boost prices, but the question arises: Is such action lawful? We do not think it would be.

PRICE OF BREAD THE SAME.

THE price of wheat has tumbled to the lowest figure in history, and one Kansas farmer says he will not plant wheat next year and who bought 2500 bushels of the grain is quoted as saying: "It cost me just 25 cents a bushel flat. I couldn't possibly have grown it for that. Besides, I'll save the cost of harvesting and threshing and the land will get a rest." But what puzzles us is that we have noticed no increase in the size, nor any decrease in the price of the loaves of bread our bakers have been charging us ever since the World War.

THE COMING INDUSTRY.

Interest in the tung oil industry continues to attract attention of land owners all along the Gulf Coast, and within the next decade it will be one of the most profitable occupations in which the people of this section can engage. The demand for the oil extracted from the tung nut is constantly growing, and there is no danger of overproduction.

ALL DOUBT ELIMINATED.

As The Echo remarked in a recent issue, candidates who had the endorsement of Governor Bilbo did not know whether to regard his favor as an asset or a liability. Such candidates were no longer in doubt on that point when the returns came in from the first primary. In nearly every instance they went down in defeat.

The Ohio Oil Company has been drilling a well near Aberdeen and last week struck a flow of gas, and officials of the company say that oil will be found when the well is deepened.

Chicago undertakers are complaining about doing poor business, and the New Orleans States says it "has probably been caused by the recent conviction and imprisonment of so many gangsters." Maybe so.

Prohibition law enforcement officers in New York City ran upon a two-million-dollar brewery which had been operated for many months. It was guarded by members of the police force, who were hired by brewers.

The stamp of approval for past faithful and efficient service was placed on Hon. C. M. Morgan in his race for re-election as railroad commissioner for the southern district. He won by a large margin over two popular and strong opponents. "Red" Morgan has proven his worth and the people have shown their appreciation of his services.

Give the Eighteenth Amendment time. Look how long the Ten Commandments have been trying—New Haven Register. We hadn't thought of that! While admitting that the Ten Commandments have made the world a better place in which to live, no one will assert that the Eighteenth Amendment has contributed one bit in that direction.

The body of Dan P. O'Flynn, 63-year-old secretary of the Elks Club at Meridian, was found in a pool near that city last Friday morning, with a length of grass rope knotted about the neck. The club reading room showed evidence of a struggle, chairs and a table being overturned, but police investigation failed to develop any clue which might lead to the apprehension of the men responsible for O'Flynn's death.

Sitting in a swivel chair in the department of commerce at Washington, Secretary Lamont "recommends a curtailment in the production of lumber," so we are told in press dispatches. That is about on a par with most of the recommendations which come from department heads at the national capital. It would not be amiss for somebody to tell Secretary Lamont that "curtailment in the production of lumber" has already taken place due to lack of timber in every section of the country.

With 85 to 90 per cent of Spain's population adherents of Catholicism, a measure incorporating into the new constitution of the republic an article expelling religious orders from the country and confiscating their property will shortly be presented to the national assembly by the parliamentary commission. Churchmen contend that the measure reflects the Socialist complexion of the commission and cannot pass without one of the greatest parliamentary battles in Spanish history.

FACTIONALISM IS DEAD.

GLORY BE! By an overwhelming vote of patriotic electorate of Mississippi, a death blow was administered to factionalism in the first primary held last week.

Every candidate seeking office who based his claims for political preferment on factional or partisan grounds, either as a Bilboite or an anti-Bilboite—met defeat at the hands of the men and women who love Mississippi far more than all else in the world. Too long have they suffered humiliation and wrong through the prevalence of factionalism, and they went to the polls on August 4th imbued with the single thought and determination to put an end forever to the cause which has brought shame and disgrace to their great State.

There are two able, honest and high-minded men, against neither of whom can aught be said, and one of them will be the next chief executive of Mississippi. The selection of either Hugh White or Mike Conner assures the restoration of Mississippi's once proud place in the sisterhood of the States of this great nation. Every citizen of our commonwealth has just cause for rejoicing, for the redemption of their beloved State is at hand.

It is going to require the best thought and untiring work on the part of the next administration to accomplish the herculean task which will face it, but The Echo knows that with unity of purpose and patriotic zeal the administration can and will restore the good name of the State, and that graft, scandal and corruption, in both high and low official station, will no longer cause the honest citizenship of Mississippi to blush with shame when taunted by the people and press of other States at the mention of such things occurring at the State capitol and elsewhere in their beloved commonwealth.

NEED FOR GREATER PUNISHMENT.

IF and wherever fraud shall be detected in the primary of last Tuesday, it should be punished with the severest penalty of the law, is what the people of the State are said to be saying—Edgar S. Wilson in Mirrors of Mississippi. In a Democratic primary where none but white men and women fully qualified to vote there is no need of excuse for fraud being perpetrated, and the law does not provide a penalty severe enough to be meted out to those who might be guilty of such a violation. In prior elections it has been charged time and again that ballots have been cast throughout the State by voters who had no right to exercise the right of franchise, but we have yet to hear of a single instance where there has been either prosecution or conviction, and we do not doubt in the primary of last week there was more or less violation of the election laws.

NO HELP TO COLORED RACE.

Over in Alabama the devil has been put into the heads of some ignorant negroes by communist agitators and propagandists, and several crimes committed which are directly traceable to such outsiders. It is the duty of the more intelligent and law-abiding element of the colored race to exert their best efforts to teach the ignorant members of their race that the white people are the best friends they have. The responsibility for the spread of hatred in the hearts of the ignorant class against the whites rests on the shoulders of the negro leaders. Will they recognize that fact and use their influence to save their race from untold and useless misery. The alien and outsider preaching hatred of the whites to ignorant negroes has a sinister purpose in mind, and it bodes no good to the colored race in general.

VACATION SUGGESTIONS.

Quite a unique suggestion comes out of the West regarding summer vacations. It is that city residents who have friends living in the country exchange homes for two weeks, the urban dweller taking a vacation amid rural surroundings, and the farmer's family taking their vacation by getting a couple of weeks of city life.—Mobile Register.

There's nothing unique or new in that suggestion to our coast country home-owners, both town folks and farmers. Their observation and experience has demonstrated such suggestion has been acted on by city residents without even a thought of swapping abodes with them for two weeks or longer.

AWARDED MEDAL.

Lieutenant Colonel Daniel I. Sultan, a native of Oxford, Miss., has been awarded a distinguished service medal in recognition of his service as commander of the detachment of army engineers which recently completed a survey of the proposed Nicaraguan canal. He was cited for efficiency in conducting the survey and maintenance of high morale among his troops "under conditions of unusual hardships and difficulty."

ONCE UPON A TIME.

It was not so long ago that one word of commendation from Theodore Bilbo was worth hundreds of votes for a candidate in Mississippi, whether such candidate was seeking a seat in the legislature or the job of constable. It was not worth much in the primary of August 4th, and if you don't believe it just ask Attorney General Mitchell.

THE FEWER THE BETTER.

Governor Miller of Alabama is being criticized for killing 48 laws passed during the closing days of the legislative session. We are not inclined to side with his critics. The fewer laws put on the statute books the better it is for a State.

It is especially gratifying to the thousands of former students of the State Teachers' College that "Joe" Cook—who was ousted by Governor Bilbo as president of that institution, was elected to represent Monroe county in the next legislature.

WHERE THE HORSE STILL SURVIVES THE SPEEDY AUTOMOBILE.

By JOHN T. MEYERS
(For The Sea Coast Echo)

IN most sections of the United States the automobile today has very nearly crowded the ever faithful and once useful horse completely out of the picture. However, out on the big ranches and cat-ranges of southwest Texas and over across the Rio Grande the horse still holds his own.

Without their swift-footed, well-trained, cow ponies these cattle folks would be at a total loss in carrying out the daily routine of their colorful and adventuresome tasks.

San Antonio is headquarters for cattlemen of west Texas. Here, in shops devoted to the needs of the ranchmen, one finds varied styles of saddles, spurs, elaborately decorated cowboy boots, ten gallon hats, leather chaps, six shooters, branding irons, and countless other articles used in the cattle business. Although the ranches are located within a radius of fifty miles from this city, it is an everyday sight to see these tall, lean, sun-baked, sons of the saddle sprawled in hotel lobby chairs, or clanking down the streets in their high heeled boots.

And if one listened in on their conversation for any length of time, there is certain to be a faithful mention of some worthy feat performed by the horses on their ranch. In cowboy lingo a horse is oftentimes referred to as a "cayuse." This term is derived from the Indians.

In some nearby cattle town there is certain to be a wild and woolly rodeo scheduled on almost any Sunday or holiday. It seems to be a rancid down tradition out in southwest Texas that children should be taught to be at home in the saddle even before they are able to walk. While his eastern cousins are playing marbles and spinning tops, these western lads are learning the art of calf and goat roping from the saddle of a galloping cow pony. Instead of playing leap frog, the ranchland youngsters are "whooping it up" trying to stay astride the back of a frisk-full grown yearling for pastime.

The horse, saddle, spur, and lariat has long been associated with the west. And although the cattlemen of southwest Texas have their automobiles the same as other folks, the horse still holds first place in his heart. When the ranchman comes to visit San Antonio he slings his saddle across the hood of his car. He knows the automobile will outdo his favorite horse on the highway, but out in the isolate misquitos and cactus lands were he must herd his cattle—only his faithful pony will serve his needs.

DO NOT HURRY!

By GEORGE MATTHEWS ADAMS

The daily talks by George Matthews Adams which appear in the daily press are sublime in every respect. The Echo has been requested to reproduce the one herewith, with its exclamatory title of "Do Not Hurry!"

There is one thing of which we may be sure—there is no hurry to get through life. There is plenty of time all the time that there is—for us all.

Each of us is sure to reach his journey's end. Our newspapers are filled with sad stories—the stories of those who have reached their journey's end all too soon. Nothing is sadder than to witness the sudden passing of those whose work is far from being complete. But, being in too much a hurry, the silent whisperer all too often gets in his message, cutting many an important errand short.

There is time for your particular part. Do not hurry. The audience will wait—besides, there are others in the cast, with their parts to play, and your cue is always necessary that they may go on with the play. Hurrying always brings about confusion, and confusion always retards and often breaks up the value of one's task.

A study of this marvelous world tells us that God was in no hurry to bring things about. So far as we are able to figure things out, it took millions of years just to bring man up to a condition of intelligence—and he has much to learn along this line yet!

Do not hurry! Take time for a happy breakfast. Wait for the traffic light—the moment of rest will do you good, and perhaps save for you a body unmaimed. Even business isn't so very important. Learn much from a relaxed luncheon with a friend. Go often to the country for a little idle wandering. Sit down and pick the fresh grass, and then throw it away. The very crackle of its spears will rest your nerves.

Take a little time off for pure foolishness and give a few of your ghosts the laugh! It will thrill you to catch the occasional flashes of immortal truths that are the heritage of the simplest and poorest of us all.

Do not hurry. All the time that there is in this world belongs to you.

VIEW OF OUR NEWS

By Chicagoan

(REVIEWING THE NEWS IN LAST WEEK'S ECHO.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 11.—The first primary campaign is over, and last week's Echo carried its results. These showed that the people of Mississippi gave much thought to the power which reposed in their hands, before going to the polls to exercise it. Proud indeed, should A. G. (Red) Favre be, for having so conducted his office that his constituents found him so worthy of re-nomination. That he received 2092 of the votes cast in an election in which the voters were more than ordinarily awake is a fine testimonial indeed. And the man who is so worthy of his county's confidence can be depended upon to serve the other thousand or so voters whose choice was another, in the same manner as he will his friends.

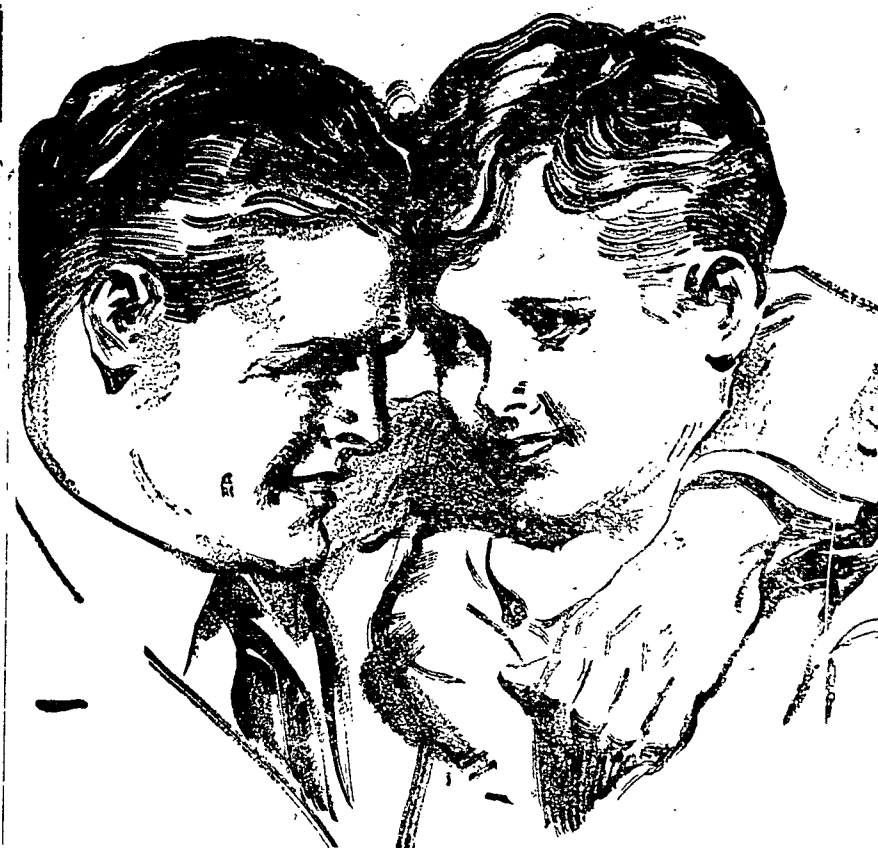

EDITORIALLY commenting upon the high plane on which the Hancock county campaign was conducted, Editor Moreau pointed out that the Echo took no sides in the competition. Naturally, Mr. Moreau voted, as all good citizens did, but when it came to using his newspaper for the purpose of showing favoritism, he did not see the need. And so the Echo, too, kept itself on the same high level maintained by the candidates.

A BIT of interesting history did Rev. Fr. Fahey bring when he appeared before the last Rotary meeting to deliver his talk on "Citizenship." He cited as citizens of the highest type Father Buteaux, who in 1847 came to Bay St. Louis, and Father LeDuc, who carried on his work during the trying days of the war between the States. The speaker pointed out the selfish zeal with which these two men worked in the furtherance of their cause. And is listeners must have contrasted the real patriotism of those humble missionaries with the sham love of country too often on the mouths of politicians.

"IT'S A BOY!" Such was the announcement made to Mr. Norton Haas after his vigil at the King's Daughters hospital at Gulfport. Being an athlete still, it is safe to assume that the erstwhile coach jumped with glee. Now as he looks at the little lad, he has many plans for his future. Maybe some of them would take the young man into the field of sport, and maybe they would not. And then Grandpa McLeod has some ideas of what the youngster's future will be. But my prediction is that the youngest Mr. Haas will be one of the men who will develop the apple industry in Bay St. Louis. By the time he is able to take his place in the commercial, that portion of the fruit industry will have proven itself as the article in last week's paper indicates.

TO the Echo office last week, there came a letter in which the writer advocated restricting voting to those who were possessed of a certain part of the world's goods. The Echo took a kindly view of the contents of the letter, but pointed out that he day of property voting was long a thing of the past. There seems to be some logic in the contention presented by the letter writer, but on the other hand, if every man owned his home, for instance, landlords would go out of business, and wouldn't they? That only the men who are willing to support civic organizations have any right to be known as citizens of a town, is a just contention. Every business man in a town should put his name down on the membership roll of at least one such body. Then it seems strange that a man with such good ideas as our letter writer should fail to put his name at the bottom of his letter. Probably overlooked it. . . or maybe ran out of ink.

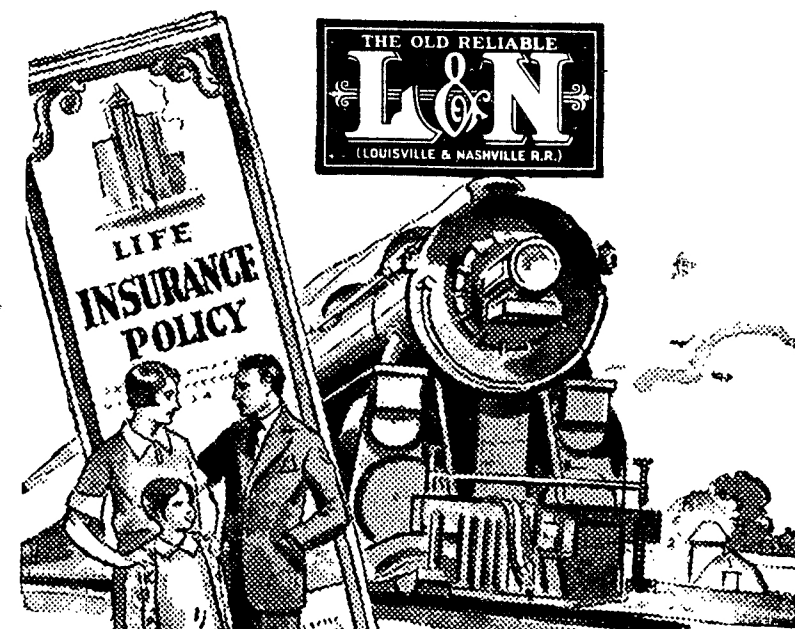

AN exceedingly well written editorial, last week's Echo cited several things which make Bay St. Louis a better place in which to live. The Rotary, one of the leading units of that great international body, the outstanding Legion Post which the city boasts, its Boy Scout troop which already excels all others of its kind on the Coast, and the Kings Daughters and Sons, and the St. Margaret's Daughters with their never flagging social service. All these were given their place along with the religious institutions and those devoted to education, as forces working day and night for the betterment of the city. And, if I be permitted, let me add to that list, the Sea Coast Echo, one of the leading weekly newspapers of the entire nation.

Justify His Trust In You

YOUR BOY, who looks up to you as the idol of all his dreams, who, in his dreams of the future wants to emulate you; help him later in life, by wants to emulate you; help him later in life, by equipment with which to face life on his own. This at least you owe your son or daughter. And it is not hard to do; just remember to save a part of your salary each week at Merchants Bank & Trust Company, and before you know it his future will be safe.

Merchants Bank & Trust Co.

If you own an Insurance Policy

You owe it to yourself and to your dependents to give careful attention to the transportation problems that confront America today. You should protect your protection by patronizing the railroads, for the great life insurance companies of America have invested practically 20% of the money that you have paid them in premiums in railroad securities, and unless the railroads are restored to a sound earning basis, the value of these securities will be seriously lessened.

The magnitude of the investment by life insurance companies in rail securities may be appreciated when these facts are considered: Each man, woman and child in the United States is, on the average, protected to the extent of $900.00 by life insurance and each family to the extent of $3,900.00. At the time this announcement is being prepared there is an astounding total of one hundred and eight billion dollars worth of life insurance in effect in the United States, with a total of sixty-eight million individual policies. If you are one of these policy-holders, you are in reality a part owner of the railroads and therefore you should be exerting every effort to preserve the safety of your interests.

Railroad operation and earning capacity are being threatened by the unfair and poorly-regulated invasion of competitive transportation agencies. The railroads are not attacking any form of transportation, but are simply appealing to the fairness of the American people, so that all public carriers should be operated under the same restrictions and regulations, and with equalization of taxation.

Travel by train, ship by train, patronize the steam railroads of America, and you will not only be getting the finest, safest and most satisfactory form of transportation the world has ever known, but you will also be protecting your protection, by assisting the railroads in earning a fair return on their properties.

The railroads built this nation. They must continue to be the backbone of its transportation system. See that they get a square deal.

Roosevelt Clubs Being Organized Throughout South

Organization of "Roosevelt Southern Clubs" supporting Franklin D. Roosevelt, governor of New York, for the Democratic presidential nomination is proceeding.

The headquarters of the clubs at Atlanta already is sounding out members of Congress on their attitude toward the New York Governor for the Democratic nomination.

A letter sent by F. B. Simmers, executive chairman of the organization, has been received by members of Congress from the southern states soliciting their views on Roosevelt.

"Our organization is taking a poll of southern and southwestern Congressmen as to their preference for the Democratic nomination, for use in press service stories next week.

"If you favor the nomination of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, we would be very glad to have a brief expression from you to use in these stories.

"If you have no preference at present, nothing will be said about it and this letter to you is absolutely confidential."

No announcement so far has been made of the results of the poll by the organization. However, the New York governor has received several public endorsements by southern members of Congress.

Personal and General Notes of Week From Waveland and Vicinity

Waveland, Miss.

WAVELAND SCHOOL TO OPEN.

The Waveland school will start its regular session Tuesday September 8. School hours have been fixed by the board as 8:45 a. m. to 3 p. m., with the usual hour at noon for lunch and games.

At a meeting of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, attention was called to the number of religious and charitable organizations now on the beach exempt from taxation. The board has decided, in justice to other taxpayers, that in future not to allow any more exemption of taxes to new applicants unless property is located 300 feet or more from the beach.

This does not apply to existing organizations now occupying the beach front.

Bids have been asked on ten cars of clam shells for street repairs.

Board has been busy during the past week revising assessment rolls.

Mrs. White is now building a new home in Nicholson avenue near the beach. Mr. Arthur Johnson is the contractor.

On Sunday a sail boat in charge of S. E. Mocklin and a few boy friends turned their craft over when about 3 miles from shore and held to the side of the boat. Mr. Mocklin fortunately discovered their plight and went to their rescue in a fast motor boat.

Miss Marie Soniat spent a few days as the guest of Mrs. Theo. Soniat, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. McGivern of New Orleans are now occupying their new home recently purchased in Coleman avenue.

Mr. Rene Crane of New Orleans is now occupying the Smith cottage on the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mocklin, Jr., and Miss Katie Manally spent the week end at the Mocklin home in Terrace.

Mrs. C. E. Leglise, Mr. Forstall and son and Mr. Bayhi of New Orleans were guests of Mrs. M. Dourmont.

Mrs. E. Bow and child spent several days guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Vecchini.

Miss Cecil Straus, Irma and Helen Gerstner spent their vacation at the Connelly cottage.

Mrs. V. E. Lizana left during the week, for an extended stay at Baton Rouge, Roxie, Miss., Hermanville, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Cangelosi and Miss Gertrude Lay spent the week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilcox.

Mrs. J. Burg and daughter, Adelaide, had as their guests during the week, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fouroux and infant daughter of New Orleans and Miss Margaret Fouroux of Plaquemine, La.

During the week Mrs. J. Burg and daughter, Adelaide, motored to Pensacola, Fla., visiting relatives. While there they visited Fort San Carlos and many other places of interest.

Mrs. O. M. Villere entertained during the week Mr. and Mrs. F. Anderson, Henry and Mildred Chopin and Mrs. Villere's mother, Mrs. Quatreveaux of Hammond, La.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson, Mr. Vittaro and family, Mr. Emile Clayton and Mr. Albert Lacroix of New Orleans were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Rolland.

Mrs. B. McCarren of New Orleans visited Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Weber.

Waveland Passes Ordinance Restricting Location of Institutions

Town of Waveland, at its regular meeting for August, passed an ordinance making it unlawful for any fraternal, benevolent, recreational or any other kind of institution of the kind to build in Waveland unless 300 feet from the front beach road.

It is reasoned that such vacation homes, where principally small children and other people are cared for, are located too near the beach road and the heavy and fast traffic to and from forms a menace to public life.

The ordinance was unanimously passed and its provisions will be strictly enforced. We understand the law is not retroactive; that it will be in force from now on and hereafter.

Two-Date Benefit For Church Of Saint Claire, at Waveland

Parishioners of St. Claire's Church, Waveland, and assisting friends from the New Orleans summer colony, are busily engaged in the forthcoming church festival, which benefit will take place on the church grounds on the evenings of Saturday and Sunday, August 15 and 16th.

It is interesting to note that it is planned to exceed all previous efforts, striving for a success without a precedent. With a two-night entertainment it is thus expected the fund anticipated will be realized.

Many committees with numerous members are working and with this combined effort there is no doubt the goal will be reached.

FLARES SERVE DOUBLE PURPOSE

Used For Both Illumination
And Props in "Politics"
Rally Scene.

Photographing a torchlight procession by its own light was one of the interesting feats accomplished in the filming of "Politics," Marie Dr. seler's first Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring picture, which will come to the A. & G. Theater, Thursday and Friday, August 20-21.

By use of the new super-sensitive film the torches carried by several hundred women in the "parade," led by Miss Dressler and Polly Moran, were photographed to perfection with an amazing effect of realism.

The new picture is a comedy drama of political life. Miss Dressler plays a woman who, aroused by civic conditions, organizes the women's vote and runs for mayor of a town, with the energetic Miss Moran as her campaign manager.

Directed by Riesner.

Charles F. Riesner, who filmed "Caught Short" and "Reding," directed the new picture. While there are many hilariously funny scenes, there is also a good deal of tense drama, in which Miss Dressler does character work that reminds one of her outstanding roles of this type in "Anna Christie" and "Min and Bill."

The high points are the breakup of the women's meeting by the indignant husbands who threaten to get dangerously drunk if their wives do not come home with them, the dramatic accusation of the mayor by Miss Dressler, at the political rally, the argument between Miss Moran and Miss Dressler, and other diverting details.

A notable cast appears. The juvenile love interest is handled by William Bakewell and Karen Morley, and the cast also includes Roscoe Ates, John Miljan, Jean Marsh, Tom McGuire, Kane Richmond and Mary Alden.

THE PRAYER OF THE UNEMPLOYED.

God, give us honest work to do!
No other boon we beg of you.
Our little children cry for bread,
Have pity, Lord, they must be fed.
Their little faces writhe in pain,
Shall babies beg for bread in vain?

Their little feet are bare and cold
And all their clothes are frayed and old.
They have no heart to shout and play
With hungry mouths from dawn till day.
They dare not dance with naked feet
Where winter stalks along each street.

Their mothers sit with streaming eyes
They cannot hush their children's cries.
They have no money, work, nor food,
This hungry, hopeless multitude;
Must any mother in our land
Ignore an infant's outstretched hand?

From town to town, from day to day,
For work to do we plead and pray,
Five million toilers unemployed,
We face a future, grim and void,
Too proud to beg, too just to rob,
We only ask an honest job.

There's food for all and wealth galore
Is heaped up high from shore to shore.
A pyramid of plenty stands,
Enough for us and other lands,
But treasures meant for all to own
Are held by lords of wealth alone.

God, give us patience to pursue,
The gift and grace to live it through.
We want no dole of any man,
The chance to earn what wage we can.
Is all we claim, is all we crave,
The right to battle with the brave.

We claim our share of every good,
Designed to do our humanhood.
We cannot brook our children's cries,
Nor face our wives with weeping eyes.
God, give us strength and work to do,
No other boon we beg of you.

—DAVID E. GUYTON,
Blue Mountain, Miss.

HELPFUL HOME HINTS.

To remove chewing gum from a washable dress, soften the stain with egg white and then wash.

Liver and cucumber salad is a good combination. Mix 2 cups of cold chopped cucumber, ½ cup of diced celery with mayonnaise dressing and serve on lettuce leaves.

All preserves should be cooked rapidly until they are clear and tender, and the fruit should hold its original shape. The finished product should be bright, sparkling, and with the plump fruit easily distinguishable throughout. Slowly cooked preserves are dull, dark, and not nearly so attractive.

A pair of kitchen shears with sanitary white handles and strong, sharp blades is a useful tool. It can be used for chopping celery, apples, and pickles for salad, also chicken and other meats; for cutting the heads and tails from fish; for cutting lettuce for shredded salad, bread for stuffing, and marshmallows, dates, and nuts for desserts. Then there are all the ordinary uses for scissors—cut paper for lining cake tins, twine on packages, shelf paper, and many other uses.

Pear salad is unusually good. Either fresh or canned pears may be used. In using canned pears, drain the fruit, but save the pear juice for a fruit punch, with lemon or orange juice added. Wash and chill the lettuce so that it will be crisp. Arrange the pears on the lettuce, sprinkle with graded cheese and garnish with salad dressing. Pared fresh pears will discolor on standing. They should be pared and cored just before serving or must have lemon juice added.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

A MAN IN A MILLION.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 12, 1931.
Editor, The Sea Coast Echo.

Dear Sir:—As a subscriber to the Echo, as a property owner in Mississippi and part time resident, and as a citizen of Mississippi's neighboring state (Louisiana), naturally interested to some extent in Mississippi's happenings, at least in so far as it concerns by own interest as a taxpayer in Mississippi, I have followed the press accounts of the recent primary election and the approaching run-off between Mr. White and Mr. Conner.

I know that Mississippi voters, especially at this time have rightful cause to resent the interference of "Outsiders" who presume to tell them how they should vote. Such is not my presumption or idea. Personally, I do not know either gentlemen in the present race for governor; I am not now in politics in any manner; and I have no personal reasons, direct or indirect, for espousing the cause of either one against the other.

However, it certainly appears that Mississippi now has the opportunity of a generation to jump from the trail of political depression, from the domination by "professional politicians" with their personal, selfish interests always ahead of the public welfare, into the march of advancement and progress—from the misrule of "professional politicians" to the administration of its government by "professional" business men.

By its decisive, determined, and slaughtering defeat of everything that ever had the taint of "Bilboism," on August 4th, Mississippi has truly redeemed itself from one of the worst forms of "professional politicians' misrule. That was undoubtedly a great victory for the welfare of the state. And, even if nothing more were done, it should serve notice to those "professional politicians" that they must not and can not run things solely and entirely to suit themselves, and their own pocketbooks, for ever and ever.

Even if all, or any portion, of what both candidates for governor in the coming run-off claim, is true, according to the press reports, in my humble opinion, your own prediction as contained in the publication of Mr. White's picture under the caption, "Mississippi's Next Governor," in your issue of August 7th, is a prediction well made, and reflects "how the wind is going to blow," as well as "the wind should blow" for the real, honest-to-goodness welfare of your state.

Although a lawyer myself, at least fairly successful in my profession, and with some political experience, and some experience in public office, I do not hesitate to admit that there is such a thing as too much political office holding by lawyers, and very often not enough by practical, or "professional," business men. There is also, unquestionably, such a thing as too much money in politics, and such a thing as money buying the office. But I feel safe to say, without fear of successful contradiction, that there is no case on record, of state or national importance, where the money which was the source of the evil came from the candidates' own pocket-book or bank account.

The "tainted money" which buys elections always comes from the supposedly "voluntary" contributions. It comes, in disguised ways from contributors who deep down in their own hearts are secretly calculating on getting back, some day in some way, $2.00 or $1.50, or at least their money back, for every single dollar they contribute to the campaign fund. If Mr. White is rich enough to pay for his own campaign without asking, or having his friends ask, for "voluntary contributions"; and if being so rich he is willing to spend his own money and no one else's, to be elected—then he is truly the candidate ideal—a man in a million.

Few really rich men get enough fun or satisfaction out of spending their own hard dollars that way, whether they live in Mississippi, or Louisiana, or New York, or Pennsylvania, or Illinois, or in California.

If Mr. White does spend his own hard dollars, and not other, to be elected, then he will certainly be his own boss after he is elected. Then he will have no rich men, rich corporations, or their rich friends to thank or to take orders from, in order to pay back for their "voluntary" campaign contributions, or other political debts.

If this does happen the gain will be Mississippi's; she will have realized "a consummation devoutly to be wished." Mississippi will then actually have what every other state in the union has long and patiently waited and wished for, but in vain.

Respectfully,
AN INTERESTED OUTSIDER.

The entire nation regrets the serious illness of Thomas Alva Edison. He is a man who made day possible at night.

According to the calendar we have about three weeks of summer left, but according to Old Sol we have about nine.

With hailstones by the peck,

To the teeth of the icy gale.

This is the life for me, boys!
The life of a sailor, oh!

In a nice warm picture show.

SPIRITUAL PROGRAM AT GULFSIDE FOR AUG. 30 WILL ATTRACT MANY

First Time So Large a Musical Group Will Assemble Locally—Promises To Become Annual Event

The following choirs will participate jointly in a chorus singing a program of Spirituals at Gulfside, Waveland, Mississippi on Sunday afternoon, August 30, 3:00 P. M.: The Methodist Church choir, Pearlboro, Rev. S. G. Roberts, pastor; Baptist and Methodist choirs, Bay St. Louis, Rev. H. H. Lowe, and Rev. J. B. Campbell, pastors respectively; Pass Christian, Turkey Creek, Gulfport, Handsboro, Biloxi and Ocean Springs Methodists; First Street, Mt. Zion and Trinity churches, New Orleans; the Baptist choir, Gulfport, Rev. L. L. Roberts, pastor.

In addition to these groups which are now being trained by Professor J. S. P. Lee, there will be two special aggregations: a sextette from Rust College, Holly Springs, Miss., and the Gulfside quartette which acquired some distinction by its radio programs broadcast last summer over W. G. C. M., Gulfport. Moreover, there will be included in the big chorus a number of persons from other sections of the Area who will be at Gulfside in attendance upon the Area Council program.

This is the first time that Gulfside has attempted to assemble a large musical group, and indications are that the venture will be highly successful and entertaining to the visitors. Bishop R. E. Jones contemplates making it an annual event with the view of drawing patronage from an ever-increasing wider territory along the movement takes on national aspects. The director of the chorus as well as the singers themselves are rather enthusiastic about the program.

SERVES QUARTER CENTURY WITH L. & N. RAILROAD

E. H. Tardy Earns Envious 25-Year Record With Railroad.

(Biloxi News)

Twenty-five years ago an Ocean Springs youth began work as a clerk for the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Today he is wearing a silver button with five stars and holds a most enviable record for a quarter century of service with one corporation. This man is E. H. Tardy, freight agent in the Biloxi area for L. & N. R. R.

Mr. Tardy has served all along the "Old Reliable" line of the New Orleans division. He was at one time chief dispatcher for the division. He served as agent at Grand Bay, Alabama and 1917 enlisted in the army for World War service where he served until December 1918.

After receiving his discharge at Charleston, S. C., Mr. Tardy returned to Biloxi where he has served as freight agent since.

For a total of 6,516 days or almost 18 years the local freight office has operated without a reportable accident, which is a record all the employees are proud of.

Mr. Tardy is known as one of the most active civic workers in Biloxi, being active in Chamber of Commerce work, past president of the Rotary Club and most active in American Legion work, having served as adjutant for more than 9 years.

CURRENT COMMENT

LESS than one-half of one per cent of the people in Catalonia are against free government for that country. Less than one-half of one percent sounds like prohibition, and a weak brew, so far as Spanish control is concerned.

Europe does not seem to be making rapid progress in straightening out its many tangles. Europe in general, and England for example, has found itself enmeshed before, and no further back then the days of Queen Victoria. Guizot, reviewing the progress of civilization up to his time, thought that great men were not responsible for it, to any marked degree; yet the reader of Victorian annals cannot escape the conclusion that the hands of such men as Palmerston, Peel and even Disraeli, were neither idle nor useless. What such ministers would do, under present conditions is problematical, but one sometimes is constrained to think that Europe remains in a jam because the race of elder statesmen has become extinct.

Among its other wonders, California reports a fish that lays its eggs on the branches of trees. Almost anything interesting may be believed of California, but this seems too much, on the face of it. Note, however, that the branches must be broken off, and under water.

A preacher says that many church services are ruined by lack of careful attention to the hymns. If we recall correctly the experiences of our youth, the effect of such services sometimes is marred, also, by too careful attention to the "hers."

If the number of men engaged in record-breaking airplane flights increases in its present ratio, the problem of unemployment will be well taken care of before long.

Mayor Walker of New York has proposed what appears to be the only effective plan for curtailing the activities of gunmen. He has instructed the police to shoot to kill. As Sir Walter Raleigh said about the beheading axe, this is sharp medicine, but a cure for all diseases. Doctor Walker has a bad disease to cure. Few will cavil about his prescription.

One third of the homes in the United States have radios; which means that the other two thirds could enjoy a little peace and quiet, if it were not for the other third.

Mike Conner Will Speak At Gulfport Next Friday Night

Mike Conner, candidate for governor of Mississippi who with Hugh White went into the second primary run-off last Tuesday, will speak in Gulfport next Friday night, August 14, it was announced this afternoon by local leaders of the Conner supporters.

Mr. Conner will speak at the City Park on West Beach, it was said, and the event will be in the nature of a Coast-wide political rally. Citizens of the three Coast counties of Harrison, Hancock and Jackson are expected to attend, it was said.

Both Mr. Conner and Mr. White resumed their speaking campaigns Monday and both will wage aggressive campaigns between now and August 25, the date of the second primary.

HAROLD BOURGEOIS HITS HOMER THAT WINS FOR WAVELAND

Gulfport-Waveland Tilt At Waveland Last Sunday Gives Home Team Success.

Harold Bourgeois was the hero of the Gulfport-Waveland tilt at Waveland last Sunday when his home run in the eighth supplied the winning runs for the Sentinels to finish on top a 6-3 score.

"T. J." Bourgeois and Slick Ball were on base and two were out when Harold counted his circuit clout. T. J. reached, first on the shortstop's error and Ball walked. Haas struck out and Sidney Bourgeois popped up to the catcher. Then came the home run.

Waveland drew first blood in the first inning when Ruger, leadoff batter, was safe on the Gulfport shortstop's bobble, advanced on Telhiard's hit and came home on T. J. Bourgeois' high fly to right field. In the third the Sentinels added another on hits by Ruger and Telhiard.

Gulfport tied the score at 2-all with runs in the fifth and sixth. Levens singled and scored on Payne's rightfield fly in the fifth and Cunningham singled and scored in the sixth after advancing on Currie's sacrifice bunt and a wild pitch and an error by Pitcher Bob Condon.

The Tarps threatened in the seventh when Levens was hit by the pitcher and Payne singled but Condon came through with two strikeouts to halt the rally. In the ninth Spikes and Levens hit safely for Gulfport's third run.

Harold Conn bested Bob Condon in giving up but six hits but loose support by his mates who committed as many errors was costly. Only Harold Bourgeois' opportune home run made Waveland's victory decisive.

"THE MAN IN POSSESSION" LAUGH RIOT SUNDAY-MONDAY

Robert Montgomery at A. & G. Theatre in Most Amusing Role of Career.

We know very few young women who wouldn't like to solve the servant problem as does Howe Purcell in "The Man in Possession," at the A. & G. Theatre Sunday and Monday. For if Robert Montgomery wouldn't suit them as a butler we don't know who would.

That's what happens, at any rate, in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's screen version of the popular H. M. Harwood stage farce with the exception that Montgomery forces himself into the job where, in real life, it might take some persuasion to coax him into the service.

Fun All Way Through

This is Montgomery's best picture to date and in it he seems to be having as much fun as the audiences who howl at his brilliant characterization. It is purely a laughing matter from start to finish and is outlandishly spicy at several spots. However, you wouldn't take offense and surely couldn't object to anything Montgomery says, the saintly way he says it.

Sam Wood directed the brilliant feature, and did so with rare judgment for story and action valuations, confronted as he was with the task of screening almost all his action within the four walls of a tiny English cottage. His skillful handling of the pointed dialogue passages is splendid and his tempo never lags for an instant.

Charlotte Greenwood romps away with supporting honors as the maid who appoints herself Nemesis to the pseudo-butler, but finds herself out-pointed when he brings romance into the life of the dashing widow lady-of-the-house. It is one of Miss Greenwood's most hilarious roles and she makes the most of it in a big way.

Among the outstanding members of the cast are C. Aubrey Smith, Beryl Mercer, Reginald Owen and Alan Mowbray, all perfectly cast.

Oyster Commission Member Appointed

Appointments made by Governor T. G. Bilbo follow:
J. B. Bishop, of Pinola, reappointed to the Mississippi forestry commission for a four-year term.
V. S. Smith, of Pass Christian, named to the oyster commission vice J. H. Spence, term expired, for a five-year term.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

During this warm weather the dessert problems become more pressing. Rich puddings and cakes are too heavy and require too much of the housekeeper's time in a steaming kitchen. Everyone wants a cool, light dessert. Something to tempt a jaded appetite. If one is fortunate enough to possess an automatic refrigerator, these desserts are practically no trouble. If not it takes very little time to pack them in a freezer, using three parts ice to one of salt and let stand several hours.

Apricot Mousse

Prepare 1½ cups apricot pulp by rubbing the apricots through a coarse sieve. Add 4 tablespoons sugar and 3 tablespoons lemon juice, stir until sugar dissolves. Whip 1½ cups cream stiff, add ½ cup confectioners sugar. Mix with apricots and freeze.

Peach Macaroon Ice Cream

Scald 2 cups milk. Beat 1 egg, add ½ cup sugar and add part of scalded milk. Return all to double boiler and cook until thickened stirring constantly. Add 1 cup dried macaroon crumbs and cool. Add 1 cup peach pulp and 1 cup cream whip. Freeze.

Chocolate Cream

1-8 marshmallows.
1-4 cup cocoa.
½ pint cream.
1 cup milk.
Salt.
1½ tablespoons vanilla.
Put cocoa in a saucepan and add milk gradually to make a smooth paste. Then add marshmallows and steam over hot water until thoroughly melted. Stir occasionally. Add vanilla and salt. Cool. When cold and slightly stiffened, add whipped cream and freeze.

Butterscotch Pafait.

2-3 cup brown sugar,
2 tablespoons butter,
¾ cup water,
4 egg yolks,
1 pint cream,
2 tablespoons vanilla,
Salt.
Combine sugar and water, heat until melted and boil one minute. Add butter. Cook until melted, add syrup mixture slowly to beaten egg yolks.
Cook in double boiler until light and fluffy. Chill. Add whipped cream, salt and vanilla. Freeze.

Theodore Is Silent.

Governor Bilbo has sought solitude in the sylvan shade and sequestered silence of his pecan orchard at Poplarville.

When asked for an opinion concerning the result of Tuesday's primary, the Governor replied:

"I have nothing to say."
We hope not Theodore.

You have said too darned much already.
Too much for your own good and the welfare of your followers, many of whom went down in defeat last Tuesday because Mississippi's great army of voters regarded them as Bilbo candidates.

Keep on saying you have nothing to say, Theodore.

Be silent in a dozen tongues and all known dialects.

The plain truth is that the citizenship of the Magnolia State will not be interested, henceforth and hereafter, in what Governor Bilbo may think or say on any subject.

Rejected, repudiated, defeated, overwhelmed with disgrace, his acerbic support of either of the two candidates who remain in the contest for Governor would be a liability rather than an asset.

No speech you could make just now, Theodore, would be comparable with your silence. It is a glorious moment for you to keep your mouth shut.—Jackson Daily News.

Final Tabulation Gives 108,608 White Votes

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 12.—A total of 314,245 votes were cast in last Tuesday's Democratic primary election for governor, official tabulation of a sub-committee of the state Democratic executive committee yesterday disclosed. The official vote presented to the Democratic committee today shows:

Meanwhile the sub-committee announced returns canvassed in the attorney general and northern railroad commission had removed possibility of a contest since the margins were too wide and the candidate voting approval with whatever vote the committee found after a recheck which was conducted today.

This leaves Greek L. Rice and Rush H. Knox in the run-off for attorney general, the latter being declared the second primary contestant by a margin of over 1200 votes over Russell.

TO THE VOTERS OF HANCOCK COUNTY.

I wish to express my appreciation for the votes given me on August 4th, when I did not receive a majority. I feel grateful to those whose confidence I enjoyed and whose support I received.

To those who did not vote for me I have the kindest of feelings and respectfully bow to the will of the majority.

Highway Sweeper Pays Visit to Old Spanish Trail

That oddly-looking truck, painted yellow, resembling almost anything you would imagine when looking at the mechanism as it trailed along the O. S. T. from the Pearl River line into Bay St. Louis a few days ago, was a magnetic sweeper, owned and operated by the Mississippi State Highway Department.

The sweeper is a great truck, carrying its own power of locomotive and of operating the great magnetic sweeper. It was in charge of W. H. Micker who said that the stretch between Bay St. Louis and the western limits of the county where paving is now being done on the O. S. T., yielded 691 pounds of nails, hairpins, victrola needles, bolts and scraps of iron. On the run between Bay St. Louis and Gulfport it was reported later the machine "picked up" about a pound and a half of nails and other things, he said. After completing its work on the Coast, the machine left for up state.

GAUTHIER—LUCAS

Cards have been received in this city from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Emile Lucas, former residents of Bay St. Louis, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Amelie Marie, to Mr. J. Folse Gauthier, which took place last Saturday, August 8, 1931, at St. Rita's church, New Orleans, and are "at home," at 5543 Friscoville, avenue, Arabi, La.

The bride is well-known here as the grand daughter of Mrs. Amelie U. Gragnon, Bay St. Louis pioneer, and is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy, and later from university department of the Convent of the Sacred Heart at New Orleans. The groom is a well-known Louisianian with a number of academic degrees and is a professional man.

—Friends locally and from away of the Gauthier family, who reside here in summer on the Waveland beach, will learn with interest of the recent new addition to the family, when a daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Maxwell, named Virginia Elizabeth, Mrs. Maxwell before her marriage some years ago, was Miss Vivian Grace.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

(By Our Society Editor)

MRS. HARRY C. GLOVER'S LOVELY LUNCHEON-BRIDGE WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

BEAUTIFUL mid-summer is the season of parties, and this year at Bay St. Louis is not the exception. One party lovelier than the other seems to be the rule.

Mrs. Harry C. Glover's luncheon-bridge at the "Oriole" Wednesday afternoon was not the exception. This social gesture to a small party of friends was perfect in every appointment, with the decorative motif in wicker and green, and five tables of guests were charmed at the intriguing game of cards until a late hour of the afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth W. Pepperdine captured the first prize, an oyster white purse, Mrs. J. J. Gravemberg won the second, a rare piece of linen, while the third, a hand bag was captured by Mrs. E. J. Bezouner.

And the price of food has been going down so fast for the last year or more, that we've never changed so many price tags in our lives. We're usually the first to bring prices down where they belong, as you will notice if you read our advertising.
